SFBOA NEWSLETTER

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 1 JANUARY 2009

SFBOA MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

cbgreene interiors, llc

Happy New Year! 2009 can be the year you resolve to make your home or office the best it can be. As an interior design consultant,

I can make that happen.

It is truly a pleasure to do something that gives me such satisfaction while bringing a home to life whether it be small or large, modest or extravagant. In these stressful times, its even more important than ever, that your home is a place where you can retreat to find peace, comfort and rest, surrounded by the ones you love and the treasured items accumulated over the years.

As your consultant, my first priority is to listen – LISTEN - to your design dilemmas, likes and dislikes, needs and wishes, as well as your budget allowances.

Budgets vary greatly. From a one-hour consultation, to the full scale overhaul of a room or home, I am pleased to help. Small jobs are just as pleasing and fun to do as the larger ones. Not everyone needs or wants Venetian plastered walls! I am very adaptable to your needs and enjoy meeting and working with you as new or repeat clients.

One aspect of my business that I find particularly enjoyable is the one day room makeover, which can usually be completed in three to five hours, depending on the size and furnishings of the room. This is accomplished using your furniture and accessories. A new floor plan will be designed for better flow, balance and proportion, and to meet the needs of the family. Personal treasures will be showcased and a strong focal point will anchor the space. A new room will have been created!

If desired, suggestions will be made for paint colors or future perfect purchases for a specific area to fit a specific need. The one-day makeovers have instant results.

Seeing the wonderful reactions is so satisfying and especially rewarding when my clients makes comments such as "I had no idea what a difference you could make!"

I would be most pleased to make your resolution a reality and "bring new life to your home". Blessings for you and yours for a healthy, prosperous and joy-filled 2009.
